

Business Licenses

At the present time, Elko County does not have a business license program. You do however need to register your business with a fictitious business name through our clerk's office.

Each one of our cities has a business license program, so if you plan on doing business in the cities, please contact their city clerks for information.

The Spring Creek Association also has a vendor license required in the Homeowners Association. Please contact the Association for information.